

GRAPHIC DESIGNER, CPN-PREV NETWORK (CANADIAN PRACTITIONERS' NETWORK FOR THE PREVENTION OF RADICALIZATION AND VIOLENT EXTREMISM)

JOB DESCRIPTION

Title and location of the position:

Graphic Designer

CPN-PREV

UQAM – Department of Psychology

Position description

In close collaboration with knowledge mobilization coordinator of the CPN-PREV, the graphic designer will take on the formatting of the organization's publications, in accordance with our pre-established visual identity.

The graphic designer will work on all sorts of publications such as research reports, pamphlets, infographics, power point slides and website pages.

Duties and responsibilities

- Handle the formatting of all knowledge mobilization materials. These materials will include, but may not be limited to:
  - Reports;
  - Pamphlets;
  - Infographics;
  - Videos;
  - Power point slides;
  - E-learning course materials;
  - Website pages.

Position requirements

- Experience in the fields of graphic design, digital media, art or other relevant areas;
- Advanced knowledge of the Adobe Creative Cloud Suite (InDesign, Illustrator, etc.)
- Excellent communication skills through websites and social networks;
- Proficiency in French and English;
- Excellent organizational and interpersonal skills;
- Creative and autonomous, able to respect deadlines;
- Interest in the field of Prevention of Violent Radicalization is an asset;

Duration and location of the position

Renewable part-time (7h/week). UQAM

Effective date of employment

April 2021

Contact Information

Submit a cover letter and your CV, with the names and contact details of three references before March 31, 2021.

To: Pablo Madriaza, PhD.

General Coordinator of the CPN-PREV

Department of Psychology

UQAM

madriaza.pablo@uqam.ca