

The Mapping team of the Canadian Practitioners Network for the Prevention of Radicalization and Extremist Violence (CPN-PREV) based at UQAM is looking for interview transcribers in English and French in the context of a research project.

CPN-PREV is a Canadian evidence-based, practitioner-driven network that promotes Canadian and international multi-sectoral and multi-disciplinary leadership in tackling violent radicalization (<https://cpnprev.ca>). CPN-PREV supports best practices and multi-sectoral collaborations by sharing and pooling expertise and promoting knowledge mobilization opportunities for researchers, practitioners, policymakers, and members of community organizations.

Qualifications required:

- Excellent English and French grammar and syntax
- Proficiency in MS Office
- Knowledge of social science terminology
- Excellent work- and time-management skills
- Ability to deliver
- Attention to detail and thoroughness

Experience in transcribing is strongly recommended but not mandatory.

Remuneration to be discussed.

If interested, send your CV and a letter of motivation to Sarah Ousman, the Mapping Coordinator at ousman.sarah@uqam.ca.

Application deadline: January 14 2022.

Please note that only successful candidates will be contacted.

We look forward to receiving your applications!
